Jack Rabbit Hunts Are Now the Rage

Jack rabbit hunts are now the rage in Curry county. These little pests which have been giving the farmers so much trouble lately are being killed off at a rapid rate. They are so thick they cause much damage to the crops. Every night they can be seen grazing on the wheat fields in large numbers. It is nothing uncommon for four or five men and women to go jack rabbit hunting out of Clovis and get fifty to seventy five of the little animals in a few hours. The way to hunt them is to go in a light automobile with a bright headlight. Many can be seen along the roadside, but a better plan is to get to a wheat field and turn the light over a wide range and the rabbits can be seen plainly for a long distance. When the rabbits are located they can be easily run down by the machine and killed by the hunters before a very long chase. It is lots of sport and those engaged in it are doing the farmers a good turn.

There should be a bounty on jack rabbits, but the state laws do not permit it. There is much sentiment however in favor of a state bounty and the next legislature will likely pass a law to this effect.

An Appreciation.

Our hearts have been touched by the many tokens of love and sympathy and the timely help which we have received during the sickness and death of our dear Margaret.

Accept our hearty thanks. We love the people of Clovis.

School Notes.

Miss Carolyn Parke has been on the sick list for some time and will probably be unable to assume her duties for several months.

The High School didn't win from Hereford and is busy this week trying to discover the reason why. The support was the best that ever attended a football game in Clovis.

The High School enrollment is now passed the 150 mark and is still growing. Only one pupil has been lost since the beginning. This particular pupil is George Allen, who is extra boy for the Santa Fe.

Bishop W. R. Lambuth, of Oakdale, California, addressed the high school on Friday afternoon and in a happy way told some of his experiences while traveling on the ocean.

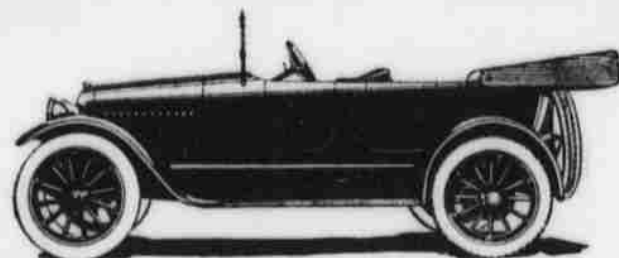

Officer Sadler has been appointed truant officer by the Board of Education and has already demonstrated his ability to produce the goods. It is the desire of the school authorities that every pupil be in regular attendance. A pupil who is absent from school not only does himself an injustice but makes the progress of his room just that much harder. Serious consideration should be given by parents who contemplate taking their children out of school for visiting trips or to entertain friends. The school law is very plainly written regarding the attendance of children. Section 4961 of the school law says that a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty five dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for ten days, may be imposed. The grand jury has a habit of calling the superintendent before it to see whether or not he is enforcing the law. He intends that there shall be no cause for complaint along these lines. People who know of children who are not in school will confer a favor on the Board by calling their attention to the matter.
